

Northern Lights

Jörgen "Dudde" Astner, Sweden

WHISTLE D

The first staff of music shows a melody in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. The whistle fingering below consists of 16 measures, each with a set of fingerings for the D whistle. The first six measures use a fingering of four open circles with arrows pointing down to the second, third, fourth, and fifth holes. The remaining ten measures use various combinations of solid black dots and open circles, with some measures including a '+' sign to indicate a breath mark.

WHISTLE D

The second staff of music continues the melody. The whistle fingering below consists of 16 measures. The first six measures use the same fingering as the first staff. The remaining ten measures use various combinations of solid black dots and open circles, with some measures including a '+' sign to indicate a breath mark.

WHISTLE D

The third staff of music continues the melody. The whistle fingering below consists of 16 measures. The first six measures use various combinations of solid black dots and open circles, with some measures including a '+' sign. The remaining ten measures use various combinations of solid black dots and open circles, with some measures including a '+' sign.

WHISTLE D

The fourth staff of music continues the melody and is marked with a first ending bracket. The whistle fingering below consists of 16 measures. The first six measures use various combinations of solid black dots and open circles, with some measures including a '+' sign. The remaining ten measures use various combinations of solid black dots and open circles, with some measures including a '+' sign.

WHISTLE D

The fifth staff of music continues the melody and is marked with a second ending bracket. The whistle fingering below consists of 16 measures. The first six measures use various combinations of solid black dots and open circles, with some measures including a '+' sign. The remaining ten measures use various combinations of solid black dots and open circles, with some measures including a '+' sign.