

The Mossy Banks

The image displays a musical score for the piece "The Mossy Banks". It consists of six systems, each containing a musical staff and a corresponding dot-whistle notation system. The musical staff is in the key of D major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. The dot-whistle notation uses a grid of dots to represent fingerings, with '+' signs indicating breath marks. The notation is organized into six systems, each with a "WHISTLE D" label on the left. The first system has 14 columns of dots. The second system has 14 columns, with a first ending bracket over the last two columns and a second ending bracket over the last two columns. The third system has 14 columns. The fourth system has 14 columns, with a first ending bracket over the last two columns and a second ending bracket over the last two columns. The fifth system has 14 columns. The sixth system has 14 columns. The notation is a mix of black and white dots, with '+' signs placed below the grid.